Newly renovated in fresh contemporary themes, this serene family home reveals spacious proportions and a separate lower-level granny flat offering a flexible solution for modern lifestyles. Taking in sweeping views over the district that come alive at night, the defined lounge and dining area is anchored by a stylish stone crafted kitchen. Wall-to-wall of sliding glass doors deliver seamless indoor and outdoor flow to the full-length north facing balcony, ideal for alfresco entertaining. Three bedrooms rest on the upper level, plus a separate one-bedroom granny flat, which is perfect for teens, in-laws or potential income (STCA). It's located close to village shops and express city buses, it's also conveniently accessible to Warringah Mall and a choice of beaches.

- Crisp white walls, exposed beams, timber floors and v-board detailing add warmth and texture
- Light-filled interiors offer separate lounge and dining
